Dedication . . .

AS AN EXPRESSION of our love for an inspiring leader, of our pride in a President who ever strives for a better Piedmont, of our gratitude for association with a man of whom it may well be said,

*“His smile inspires us—
His wisdom guides us”*

we, the students of the College affectionately dedicate
this issue of the YONAHIAN

to

GEORGE C. BELLINGRATH

Introduction . . .

THE STAFF has made every effort to portray in this book the outer life and inner spirit of Piedmont College. We hope this volume will serve as the embodiment of an ideal: service; as the incarnation of a principle: fidelity; as the interpretation of a spirit intangible but effective beyond words. If we have achieved this end our work has not been in vain; it has, on the contrary, succeeded in conveying to others at least a slight impression of all that our College means to us.

Class of Thirty-Seven . . .

*A song to thee fair class of mine,
Class of Thirty-Seven.
No greater song than this of thine,
Dear Class of Thirty-Seven.
The ripple of Lake Demorest,
The whispers of the campus trees
Unite in one grand symphony
Dear Class of Thirty-Seven.*

*Thou rich in all that makes a class,
Class of Thirty-Seven.
Thou strong in love and loyalty,
Class of Thirty-Seven.
We feel that we may have a claim
Upon the golden rule of fame.
Our loyal hearts shall sing thy name
Dear Class of Thirty-Seven.*

*Then may we ever think of thee,
Piedmont, dear old Piedmont.
And may we ever faithful be,
To Piedmont, dear old Piedmont.
To thy ideals we'll ever cling,
And praise of thee ever sing.
Through all the world thy name shall ring,
Dear Class of Thirty-Seven.*

Football . . .

WHEN OUR COACH ARRIVED for the beginning of the football season he found that he had a small squad out for the team. He and the squad went about the work with a determination to make a great season even with the handicaps they found.

The first game was with Appalachian State Teachers. Our team went into the game with all the "pep" a team could have. Even though the score was not in their favor the boys played throughout the game in a manner to be praised.

The next game was with the strong Wofford team and we were again out-scored but not defeated. Wofford won the game by a score of 37-0. Then came the first game on our home field with Hiawassee College and again we lost by a close and hard game, ending 14-0. Jacksonville, Alabama, Teachers was the next team to be played and we played a better brand of football than had been played this year and almost defeated the strong Alabama team even though they won 14-7. This was our last defeat.

Piedmont then came through the game with Snead with a victory, 14-0, and a great performance.

Abraham Baldwin then came up to North Georgia only to be defeated 12-6 by a Piedmont team that seemed almost impossible to stop.

Thanksgiving was upon us and we had the big game of the year before us. Before a large number of Piedmont alumni and friends and almost every student the Piedmont team ran wild and defeated Campbell College 20 to 7 in a real football game.

The letter men are not the only ones who deserve the credit for a successful year, but also the scrubs of the squad.

We want to pay our sincerest thanks to our trainers, and especially to the coaches, Hagamen and Adams. We especially want to thank Coach Hagamen for what he has done for our student body and football team.

QUILLIAN . . . . . (Captain) Tackle

Joe led the team with a steady hand through thick and thin and gave a good performance by his hard tackles. We expect to see him going strong again next year.

PAGE . . . . . (Alt. Captain) Halfback

"Hong Kong" was one of the fastest, cleanest players we saw in action last year. He helped Joe lead our team to a good finish.

WHITE . . . . . Quarterback

Ray was always ready to go and played heads-up ball throughout the season. We'll be seeing you in action again, Ray.

Monroe played his last ball game Thanksgiving and also played more minutes than anyone except Quillian. We hate to see him go but wish him luck.

MOSELEY . . . . . Tackle

Nick was a quiet but hard player and he gave opponents much trouble. We will be looking for him next year.

WILLIAMSON . . . . . Halfback

"Fuzzy" was one of our best bets and he'll be back with lots of pep next year.

WILLIAMS . . . . . Center

"Red" or "Strawberry" came late in the season but made up for lost time by his football ability and came through with a good record.

SNYDER . . . . . End

"Al" gave us a tip as to what Teccoa might have. He played strong ball and made many tackles. He'll help us again next year.

BILLINGSLEY . . . . . Guard

"John Dillinger" treats them rough and makes them like it. He's in on all the hold-ups and helps with the touchdowns.

SHIRLEY . . . . . End

Jack was a freshman but made the opponents think he was a sophomore. He may have been from Sing Sing but if he was we would like to have some additional bald heads.

TURPIN . . . . . Halfback

"Eddie" was little but hit them hard. He'll be back to help next year and we bet he'll do a big job of it.

OLIVER . . . . . Tackle

He's cute to the girls but mean on the football field. Another freshman who looked to be from Sing Sing and a good player at that.

WATSON . . . . . Guard

"Sheik" uses his weight and his brain and together he's good. We'll see him some more and we think we will enjoy it.

ADDISON . . . . . Tackle

Clyde was a new man and had plenty of what it takes. He was injured on the field but never stopped doing his part every day. He'll come through next year.

VOIGT . . . . . Fullback

They don't pass Bud because he gets them. Bud gave his mates many laughs and his opponents many tears. He'll be back, don't worry.

HOPES RAN HIGH within the breasts of loyal Piedmont supporters as the opening of the cage season saw a veteran team of six-footers take the court for the Green and Gold, and those hopes proved well founded as our lads sailed through the first six games with but a single loss. That came at the hands of the Hiawassee College outfit, always a tough team, when the Lions ran into "foul" trouble at Madisonville and were waved quickly to the bench for too many violations, there to watch the scrubs fight it out with the "Giants of the North."

The most praiseworthy efforts of our brave basketeers came in the game with our oldest and chiefest of rivals, North Georgia College, who had won about ten straight games as against no setbacks and who were burning to avenge two defeats suffered at Piedmont's hands last year. But no blaring brass (from the full N. G. C. band) could stem the Green and Gold tide that night, and no clanging cymbals could halt the fast-traveling Lions, who set a hot pace just ten points in advance of their opponents and held it nicely to the end.

But four days in South Georgia took the wind out of our sails in a large way, as we suffered successive defeats by Abraham Baldwin, South Georgia, Middle Georgia, and Gordon. This trip discouraged Piedmont no little, and the team never really recovered its equilibrium after four such rapid-fire drubbings, and finished the season unimpressively.

Our front line of offense usually presented the following faces: Brooks and Page, forwards, Chambers, center, and Oliver and Lewallen, guards, but these stalwarts could always be replaced with such dependable men as White, Little, and Voigt. Parris, Riden, and Finch, while playing only short periods, kept the regulars hustling to retain their positions with some fine work in practice sessions.

The men earning varsity letters were: Brooks, Page, Chambers, Lewallen, Oliver, White, and Little. Of this group only Little is serving his last year. His accurate passing and fine defensive work will be missed next season, but it is hoped that the reserves, all of whom are back next year, will have developed sufficiently to fill the breach.

PIEDMONT GIRLS enjoyed a very successful season, playing sixteen games and winning thirteen.

It was unfortunate that the team of the caliber of the 1937 Lionesses could find no more collegiate opponents than were played, but accepting the games available, they played all comers and really ran up a nice record.

Their only serious defeat was administered by the Hiawassee College misses, at Madisonville, when they were badly out-pointed, 47-27. Then they surprised one and all by breaking the magic spell wielded by the Hiawasseeans and beating them in a return game on the home floor. This must be regarded as the top performance of the campaign, as the Tennessee team was very strong.

Accepting an amateur tournament invitation, Coach Hagamen led his girls to Piedmont, Alabama, confident of bringing some measure of glory to the Alma Mater, if not a cup or so. But we were doomed to disappointment, dropping the first game played to Bevelle School of Alexander City, Alabama, by three points. Piedmont was not to come away entirely empty-handed; Ella Mae Cook, standby at one of the forward posts, was selected by judges as one of the outstanding players in the tournament.

The personnel of the team this year was most interesting, as some of the players possessed the versatility of playing any position, and so we saw varied line-ups. Cook and McGarity were the outstanding forwards, ably abetted by Cash, Lawson, and Hudgins. Grant, Puckett, and Boring were the regular guards, and received a great deal of help from Stevens. Malcolm and Sullivan were real wheel horses on the squad, serving both forward and guard posts creditably.

Piedmont girls entered an Invitation Tournament at Piedmont, Alabama, losing to Bevelle School of Alexander City, Alabama, 26-23.

THIS HAS BEEN A SUCCESSFUL YEAR in Gamma Chi's history, and we are happy that our society has been able to add something to the enjoyment of life on the campus. "The Kind Lady" was presented as our anniversary play, and at this time our sponsor, Mrs. S. E. Denton, and our mascot, Dorothy Walker, were presented.

The Gamma Chi Society, from the beginning, has tried to uphold the highest ideals. We strive constantly to express sincerity, intelligence, and fellowship, and we hope that Piedmont is a better place because of our ideals and our loyalty.

We hope that Gamma Chi will be strengthened and bound closer to the college through its scholarship fund, sponsor, mascot, and its group of loyal girls.

THE J. S. GREEN LITERARY SOCIETY celebrated its fortieth anniversary this year. The ideals of the society are embodied in the one word "Excelsior." These ideals are to be of service to the society, to Piedmont, and to the world. May these ideals remain dominant throughout the next year and the years to come.

The work of the society this year has been a marked success. The Greens won the annual basketball game with the Prots and tied with them in football. Miss Louisa Kimzey was re-elected sponsor. The society presented "The Bishop Misbehaves" on their fortieth anniversary program. Highlight of the excellent programs was the address given by Mr. Brooks Phillips on "Who's Going Ahead."

"Once a J. S. Green, always a J. S. Green" is the whole-hearted sentiment of every old member and grew to be the sentiment of each and every one of the thirty new men taken in this year. "The secret of success is constancy of purpose."

THE PROTROPICAN LITERARY SOCIETY, organized in 1897, has been a vital force in the development of character of those men who have taken advantage of its opportunity for fraternal companionship and concerted effort toward the attainment of those ideals for which the society stands.

The primary object of the Protropian Society is to bring together, for pleasure and mutual benefit, men of kindred interests. Associated in a spirit of brotherly love and co-operation, every man contributes to the group such strength and ability as he possesses and receives in return the inspiration and support of the whole organization.

Patronize Our Advertisers

As we all know, quality is the main criterion by which a book is judged. To put out a book of high quality takes money, and our advertisers help out admirably without question to furnish some of this money through ads.

Their cooperation and ads were given in the hopes, however, that we, the student body, will reciprocate by patronizing their firms. And making it lucrative to both parties concerned.

Therefore, the least we can do is to show our appreciation and loyalty to those represented in these pages by acting in accordance with the solicitation found here.

Let others prate of books and learning,
Of volumes large and manuscripts—
My heart is fired with a restless yearning
For clinging arms and full-blown lips.

Let others look on leaves long-faded,
And breathe the musts from pages rare—
I search for cheeks by the rose pervaded
And love the smell of fragrant hair.

Let others lounge midst shelves of books,
And libraries filled with ancient lore—
But give me a girl, and sunshiny nooks,
And I will ask of the world no more.

HELLO, CLASS OF 1937

Now that your high school days are over, what are you going to do? No doubt you realize the value of continuing your education at some college where you may receive thorough instructions at a minimum cost. Why not take a tip from a contented college Freshman and

GO TO PIEDMONT COLLEGE

Located in the foot-hills of the Blue Ridge Mountains where the scenery, climate and everything is fine, Piedmont to its students is the largest little college in the South.

PIEDMONT HAS A GOOD FACULTY

The Professors seem to show a direct interest in each student in a way which makes the college resemble a large co-operative family.

THE DORMITORY SERVES GOOD FOOD

Another thing you are interested in is the food and the dormitories in which you are to live.

PIEDMONT HAS ATHLETICS

For years this college has offered all the major sports: football, basketball, baseball, and intra-mural athletics during the summer.

PIEDMONT SPONSORS CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

The student's training and personality are developed in such organizations as the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Glee Club, Debating Club, Gamma Chi, Theta Zeta Phi, Protropian and J. S. Green Literary Societies.

EXPENSES ARE AT A MINIMUM

The tuition at Piedmont is probably lower than that at any other senior, private, accredited college in the state. Thanks to the N. Y. A. Fund and college self-help positions many deserving students have earned a large part of their expenses through college; so take the advice of the contented college Freshman who believes that Piedmont is the answer to that profound question: Where shall I make my home for the next three or four years?

SUMMER QUARTER

First Term: June 14 to July 23.
Second Term: July 26 to August 27.

FALL QUARTER

September 20, 1937.
